Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. CHICAGO, April 30 .- Mrs. Archibald Roosevelt, daughter-in-law of President Roosevelt, was stopped at the point of a pistol in Michigan avenue to-day by a hard working detective, who suspected her of being a burgiar,

She was not arrested, but the statement of her identity was received with considerable doubt. It was not until her chauffeur had been closely questioned at Police Chief Garrity's office that the police decided they had been mistaken. Mrs. Roosevelt was on her way to the La Salle street station in her auto mobile to take the Twentieth Century Limited to New York, whence she will sail for Panama to join her husband. At Randolph street and Michigan avenue the car was stopped by the crush of traffic, and it caught the eye of Detective Sergeant Donnelly. He noticed a pile of suitcases and a fashionably dressed young woman and he stepped over to investigate. When he noticed that the car had no license plate he drew his pistol and issued a sharp command to the chauf-feur to pull over to the curb. A crowd of pedestrians halted to witness what comised to be a spectacular arrest. Donnelly, with visions of the "woman in black," opened the tonneau door.

"Who are you, Madam?" he inquired. "I am the daughter-in-law of Theodore Roosevelt, once President of the United States," replied Mrs. Roosevelt. "Have you any cards that will prove your identity?" the detective asked. "Certainly," said Mrs. Roosevelt, pro-ducing her handbag and exhibiting sev-ral letters and cards.

The detective was nonplussed but not convinced. After a moment's hesitation ne consented to let her proceed, but ordered the chauffeur to report to Chief Garrity as soon as Mrs. Roosevelt had been taken to the La Salle street station. He did so, and explained that Mrs. Roosevelt really was Mrs. Roosevelt. The license tag, he said, must have been lost in the trip from her home

RIOT OF COLORS FOR

WOMEN'S FOOTWEAR

Summer Girl to Have Wide Variety of Choice.

Far from unimportant to the feminine mind and the pocketbook is the announce-ment that at least ten shoe colors are to be fashionable this season. What with the high cost of leather and slik hostery and the trouble that high heeled pump and the trouble that high heeled pump and spat wearers now have matching up their pedal equipment, this latest word from the color authorities is accompanied by some misgivings.

There is a wide range in the brown shades dedicated to footwear, but although brown may be brown to the casual shopper, there is a vast difference to the fastidious mind between chestnut, Artsons, moccasin, Morocco, Chippendale Arizona, moccasin, Morocco, Chippendale and camel, which are a few of the fashionable foot tints for summer wear.

For the rest of her attire the summer girl may run to the most vivid shades for evening, with a somewhat subdued assortment for street appearance. Egypt appearance and pright blue. ionable foot tints for summer wear.

and Cairo are two of the new bright blue shades, and in the purple family the novelties have been called huckleberry, bramble and perilla. Parakeet is the season's brightest green and Capri is its equivalent in blue. Aero, hydro and radio, tints of Copenhagen, are of a less startling brightness and will be rivals of the copper tones, which are called cauldron and kettledrum on the new color card issued by the Textile Color
